

CONSIGNMENT

Directorate General of Customs and Excise,
Department of Finance, Republic of Indonesia

What is meant by "Consignment" ?

Goods sent by a consignor abroad to a consignee in Indonesia by means of postal services or by seafreight / airfreight.

Consignment can be categorized into :

- Consignment exempted from customs duties and other import duties and taxes.
- Consignment subject to customs duties and other import duties and taxes.

Consignment exempted from customs duties and other import duties and taxes are :
Consignment of value not exceeding FOB US$50.00 for each despatch.

Consignment which is considered as gift for religious welfare, cultural and public charity purposes and has been approved by the Minister of Finance.

Consignment will be subject to customs duties and other import duties and taxes. If the value exceeds the fixed value stipulated, for example :

For each consignment valued at FOB US$150.00, Customs duties or other import duties or taxes will be calculated through its exceeding balance of the fixed value, i.e. the amount of FOB US$100.00 (US$150.00 - US$50.00).

How can customs duties and other import duties and taxes exemption facilities for gift consignment for religious welfare, cultural and public charity purposes be obtained ?
Submitting a request to the Minister of Finance c.o. Director General of Customs and Excise by attaching :

- A list specifying the type of goods, quantity and price.
- A Certificate from the consignor stating that the goods are gifts from donators abroad (gift certificate).
- A Recommendation from the related Department.

How to settle customs formalities ?

For consignment sent by postal services, please contact the Customs and Excise officer at the post office (refer to the list) and by providing the related documents/certificates.

For consignment sent by airfreight/seafreight, please apply a PIUD (entry form) from the Inspection Office of Customs and Excise at the seaport/airport where consignment is carried out, by attaching the approval from the authorized officials and/or related documents.
